CITY OF AUBREY
WATER SYSTEM SERVICE AGREEMENT

107 S. MAIN ST.
AUBREY, TX 76227
(940) 440-9343
(940) 365-1215 FAX
water@aubreytx.gov

TERMS:

The terms of the service agreement between the City of Aubrey Water System and the above-named Owner are as follows:

- A. The City of Aubrey will maintain a copy of this agreement as long as a backflow device is required and is connected to the water system.
B. The Owner shall allow his/her property to be inspected for possible cross-connections and other unacceptable plumbing practices.
C. The City of Aubrey shall notify the Owner in writing of any cross-connection or other unacceptable plumbing practices that have been identified during the initial inspection or the required annual re-inspection.
D. The Owner shall immediately correct any undesirable plumbing practice on the premise and provide the original passed Backflow Inspection Report to the City of Aubrey within 10 days of notice of failure or risk having water service disconnected.
E. The Owner shall, at his/her expense, properly install, test and maintain any backflow prevention device required by the City of Aubrey.

Backflow devices prevent the contamination or pollution of Aubrey's water supply system. It is required that these be installed on sprinkler systems, fire suppression systems, in businesses where chemicals or oils are handled, and anywhere else there is the risk of contamination, as well, an annual inspection is required as per the 2003 International Plumbing Code, Section 312.9.
